

Exodus 32-34 – Golden Calf and quest for more

As One at 10 Intro

Well good morning. Welcome to our Sunday worship this morning. We're delighted you've joined us, whether you are a longstanding member of St Swithin's or simply taking a look with us.

It's a strange time for us here in the UK, in a lockdown again, the leaves reminding us of moving from autumn to winter, chaos and uncertainty everywhere. It can be really unsettling and when we get fearful, anxious and uncertain it's really telling where we look for help, what do we turn to.....

This morning we're continuing our journey in Exodus and we find that after all the remarkable things God has done for the Israelites, they very quickly forget when they're looking for help.....they forget God's faithfulness, his deliverance, his mercy and grace and look elsewhere.....

I'm sure most of us can identify with that.....that we can point to times in our lives where we've known God's goodness, yet over time we forget and get led astray.

As we gather today, we do so affirming God's goodness over all generations and his mercy and grace, that while we are weak and sinful, God still loves and forgives us as we turn to Him

Let's Pray

Loving Heavenly Father, we thank you for your mercy and grace. In humility we offer our lives afresh to you this morning. Use us for Your glory. In Jesus Name. Amen
